

Digital Literary Annotation Newsletter No. 5 (February 2017)

TEASys – News

Angelika Zirker presented a poster about TEASys at the fourth DHd Conference at Bern. Abstract (pp. 274-75)

In the winter term 2016/17, we taught a seminar in which students used TEASys to annotate six sonnets by Shakespeare. The results will soon be uploaded onto our homepage. Next semester, a course on annotating metaphysical poetry will be offered.

The Annotating Literature – Team is currently working on a list of “Tips for Annotating” that will be a collection of useful advice based on our experiences with annotating literary texts. It will be uploaded on the project’s website in order to help student annotators in particular with writing their annotations. We are looking forward to including any pieces of advice and experiences from you. Please, do not hesitate to send us a message and share your experience: annotating-literature@es.uni-tuebingen.de

The Annotated Web Edition Directory is looking forward to your suggestions. We are always on the look-out for new entries to add to the list. Feel free to recommend literary digital editions that include explanatory annotation (of the social or the editorial kind), web platforms, tools and applications that enable the user to (collaboratively) annotate texts. Please use the corresponding form on our webpage. We thank you for your help.
